SCOUTING REPORT ON JERMEL JENKINS: Jermel Jenkins is an Extremely quick, pass-first guard with a solid handle and outside jumper... Consummate team player with the ability to make his teammates better... excellent on-ball defender... had a strong senior year despite the decline in minutes due to hand injury that has now fully healed... played great games against Purdue (15 points) and BYU during the NCAA tournament (13 points) on national television... played at madison square garden against Siena and was second in scoring with 16 points...career high 7 three pointers in a game against St Peters on senior night to end his career at home... key factor of leading the Gaels to being the conference champions...gave the great leadership well needed for the team this year as they finished in the NCAA, 1st in scoring, 1st in assist, 2nd in field goal percentage... even though it was a down year in minutes, his contributions this seasons were outstanding especially on the defensive end. Finished career being #1 all time 3 point field goals made, averaged over 20 wins a season for career, and one of best defensive players in Iona history.
