SCOUTING REPORT ON ROBERT VALENTINE: Rob, a point guard at 6' 1", not only dominates in his position but is able to execute any other position on the floor when necessary. He is well-known for his capacity as being floor leader with a virtually unlimited range on his shot. With his strong intuition and sharp decision making on the floor, he is able to create well coming off the dribble, left and right handed, and perform strong in pick and roll situations. Robert plays the game of basketball extremely smart, with emotion and passion.

Robert Valentine is a point guard that can score and a serious shooting threat, but also possesses the ability to create for his teammates and lead them to be better players. As a consistent, coachable player, Robert has an outstanding feeling for the game, especially on the offensive end. In addition to his extensive basketball skills and experience, one can only say that he is an equally good person with an easy going character that his coach and teammates appreciate. His hard working attitude, drive and passion for the game would make him an asset to any team.
